

Thank you for participating in this 10-10-2022 phone zap to President Pitney! We will be phone zapping the hour before the next mediation session starts.

She needs to hear University of Alaska stakeholders and community members urging her to direct her team to settle the contract negotiation stalemate with UNAC faculty.

Part of the efficacy of a phone zap is coordinating the time of our calls.

Phone zap is from 12-1 PM AKT on Monday, October 10.

Guidelines

- Be courteous and polite when you call! Someone might be answering the phone on behalf of President Pitney, so it is important you are polite to whoever picks up the phone.
- Use the script below. If you go off script, keep your message positive and pro-faculty. Do not use personal attacks or negative language.
- The phone line may be busy—leave a voicemail, or try again.

Phonescript to President Pitney

“Hello President Pitney! My name is [name] and I am a [student, faculty, community supporter, alumni, etc.] I am calling to let you know I support the UNAC bargaining team and UA faculty. I urge you to settle a fair contract with faculty without further delay. I encourage you to be a better steward of public dollars and show your faculty that you respect them by directing your team to reach a tentative agreement. Please move forward together with your UNAC faculty.”
