The By-laws of United Academics - American Association of University Professors/American Federation of Teachers Local 4996 are subordinate to the Constitution.

ARTICLE II. – Membership

Section 1. Voting rights.

- A. Voting rights are extended to any Bargaining Unit Member who is a full member in good standing of UA-AAUP/AFT.
- B. Agency fee payers are Bargaining Unit Members but are not extended voting rights, or those rights afforded members in good standing through the Constitution and By-laws.

Section 2. Bargaining Unit Members

The membership of UA-AAUP/AFT is as defined in the Constitution.

Section 3. Termination of Membership

- A. A member may resign by notifying the Secretary/Treasurer.
- B. A member may be expelled for cause by a two-thirds majority vote of the Representative Assembly after opportunity for a hearing.
- C. Membership is forfeited by non-payment of dues under conditions established by the Representative Assembly.

Section 4. Discrimination

No discrimination will ever be shown toward individual members or agency fee payers because of union membership, race, creed, sex, sexual orientation, disability, social, political or economic status, or national origin.

ARTICLE III. – Officers and Executive Board

Section 1. Election of Officers.

- A. To be eligible for office a person must be a full member in good standing of UA-AAUP/AFT.
- B. The four Organizational Vice-Presidents will be elected by the voting membership in good standing of their respective main campus or all extended sites collectively according to the procedures established by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act.
- C. Election Cycle:
 - 1. The offices of President and Secretary/Treasurer are elected by the at-large membership in good standing according to the procedures established by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act, in the years 2014, 2017, and every three years thereafter.
 - 2. Elections for Organizational Vice-Presidents will be conducted in the year following the statewide elections (2015, 2018, and every three years thereafter).
 - 3. Forty-five (45) calendar days prior to the date of the election, the Elections Committee must notify all members in good standing of UA-AAUP/AFT of the opening of nominations for office.
 - 4. The date of all officer elections will be the first Monday in February of the year in which the election for that office is to be held.
 - 5. All elections will be by secret ballot. All voting members will receive a reasonable amount of time prior to the date of the election in order to cast their vote according to the procedures established by the Labor- Management Reporting and Disclosure Act.
- D. Nominations
 - 1. To be nominated as the President or Secretary/Treasurer, the candidate must obtain the endorsement of 10 members in good standing. All endorsements must be submitted no later than twenty (20) calendar days following the notice of the opening of nominations.

2. To be nominated as an Organizational Vice-President, the potential candidate may self-nominate or be nominated by a member in good standing.
 3. To complete their nomination, candidates may be required to provide candidate statements, personal photographs and other information necessary to allow the voting membership to correctly identify the candidate.
- E. The President, Secretary/Treasurer and the Organizational Vice- Presidents are elected to three (3) year terms, and can be elected for up to a maximum of four (4) consecutive terms.
1. Successful candidates for office shall prevail in the election by receiving the highest number of votes cast for the office.
 2. In the event the top two or more vote getters receive the same number of votes, a run-off election will be held between those tied vote getters within fifteen (15) calendar days following certification of the election. In the event of a second tie, the Representative Assembly will vote to break the tie.
- F. Successful candidates will assume office the first day of July of the election year.
- G. With the exception of the office of the President, all vacancies in the Executive Board with less than half of the term remaining will be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Board. Vacancies of all officers with more than half the term remaining will be filled by a special election of the membership in good standing, under the procedures outlined in this section.
- H. Vacancy in the office of the President.
1. In the event of a vacancy of the office of President there will be a special election within sixty (60) calendar days and the Executive Board will appoint an interim president from among the four (4) Organizational Vice Presidents within ten (10) calendar days of the vacancy.

2. The Secretary/Treasurer will direct the Elections Committee to conduct a special election to fill the office within 60 days of the vacancy.
3. If the next regular election of the President is within 60 days of the vacancy, the interim president will serve out the remainder of the term and no special election will be held.

I. Recalls.

1. For the office of President and Secretary/Treasurer, a petition signed by thirty percent (30%) of the membership in good standing and stating specific grounds, is sufficient to require the Elections Committee to conduct a recall election.
 2. For any other elected position, i.e., Organizational Vice President or Representative Assembly member, thirty percent (30%) of the membership in good standing of the main campus, or thirty percent (30%) of the membership in good standing of all extended sites, is sufficient to require the Elections Committee to conduct a recall election.
 3. The Secretary/Treasurer must certify the petition and direct the Elections Committee to proceed with the recall election. If an officer is recalled, the Elections Committee must hold a special election under the provisions of this section.
- J. An officer absent from six (6) Executive Board meetings during the term will be considered to have resigned from the position. The position will be filled under the procedure outlined in this section.
